from The Casey Family Program

Founded in 1892, Juliette Fowler Communities is a 501(c)(3) organization that has served thousands of elders, children, youth and families. Our mission is to provide choice, community and connection for those we serve through a continuum of residential and care environments. As an intergenerational community, we envision a life of fulfillment for all generations.

Juliette Fowler Communities continues to expand services

Juliette Fowler Communities again is expanding its services to fulfill its mission and meet the changing needs of today's society. The latest addition to our campus is The Ebby House, a residential home for young women who have aged out of the foster care system. This new strengths-based program will mentor up to 16 young women for 12-24 months, instill life skills, and provide housing, healthcare, education, career guidance, job training, and permanency. In our intergenerational community, they also will benefit from the wisdom and encouragement of our elders.

These young women ages 18-24 will learn to be self-reliant, confident and philanthropic. Ebby Halliday Acers, Dallas real estate legend for whom the house is named, and Juliette Fowler Communities believe these traits are the hallmarks of an individual empowered for success.

The Ebby House will provide a welcoming environment for these young women. The Ebby House residents will be guided to succeed and inspired to achieve by their community.

We believe

At The Ebby House, we believe each young woman:

- is a unique individual with potential for success
