

Scott R. Martinez, MBA
Chief Financial Officer

In 2021, Scott Martinez joined the team at Fowler Communities as Chief Financial Officer, managing all financial functions and ensuring financial statement integrity through process documentation and review of internal controls and processes.

Scott launched his healthcare career in 2011, attracted the stability of the industry and quickly developed a passion for being part of a team that cared for those who want and need assistance. He had witnessed his great grandmother's and great aunt's struggle with dementia and recognized something special in Juliette Fowler Communities' I'm Still Here® program for memory care.

“I was intrigued to learn that JFC is the only certified I’m Still Here® Center for Excellence in Dementia Care in North Texas and one of only two in Texas. This program is making an incredible difference in the quality of life for those living with memory loss.”

Additionally, Scott is passionate about Fowler’s programs that care for children and youth such as the Ebby House, the Youth Support Center, and foster care programs.

financial analyst before becoming an assistant director.

Before joining the team at JFC, Scott was Director of Business Administration at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital in Dallas for four years. At Scottish Rite he was responsible for FP&A (long-term & short-term), government programs and reimbursement, decision support/cost accounting, accounts payable, payroll, and financial business systems along with hospital accounting. He first began his journey in healthcare at Texas Children’s Hospital, where he worked for six years first as a

A graduate of Texas Tech University, Scott earned a master’s and a bachelor’s in business administration. Additionally, he is a certified green belt in Six Sigma, learning business process improvement methodology.

Some of Scott’s favorite activities take place outdoors and include cycling, running, hiking, golf, sand volleyball, basketball, and disc golf.

Married in 2020 in the height of the pandemic in a small backyard wedding (with lots of COVID-19 testing in place), he and his wife, Erin, enjoy living in the East Dallas and lower Greenville area, where they have many welcoming and helpful neighbors.

Scott is a Texas native from Amarillo, where his parents, grandparents, and sister still reside. He wife is from Bradenton, Florida, with family residing both in Florida as well as in Dallas. They are enjoying the new world of parenting, welcoming their first child in 2021.

“I’m a goal-oriented person, and I’m inspired by teams like Fowler’s who successfully set, work toward, and achieve goals. One of my favorite quotes is, “If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, go together”-unknown. I’m excited to see where we will go as a team at JFC.”
